MY MOTHER'S HANDS.

Sweet beautiful hands!
I know, I know, how sweetly they
I looked on hands when first and
A mother's hand might be
Yet as those aged, wrinkled hands
Most beautiful to me.

GOOD THINGS.

CLEANED FROM VARIOUS SOURCES.

As I cleaned your hand in greeting,

And looked in your proud, sweet face,

I wondered if I thought of "And Long

Still held in your heart a place.

Ah, yes, you did remember,

Though years had made me so

For your little gloved hand trembled

As I held it clasped in mine.

Why did you sweet look at me

And your cheek turn, strangely white?

Was it memory of some long-borne

Of some we made one night?

We were all the world to each other,

Foraged as a dream for life.

I wondered if I thought of "And Long

Still held in your heart a place.

THE LION'S BRIDE.

A Ranchman's Wife Falls a Victim to

Her Husband's Savage Plot.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Jan. 22.—A most peculiar instance of jealousy in animals is reported up in the range north of this city. A Mexican named Juan

Lopez, some years ago, caught a young mountain lion, and raised it as a pet.

He had the animal completely under subjugation, and it was as social with him as a house cat.

The lion is now about fourteen years old, and is full grown, but it has never been accustomed to sleep at the foot of the bed of its master, and has followed him like a dog when he went around the place. He had "trained for him

ing, and it was always with him except when he came to town. It had never shown any disposition, when either with and would visit to friends and pet it.

Lopez recently fell a victim to the charms of one of the señoritas. The girl was brought home to the cabin of Lopez, and her first step was to the door of the cabin, where she was afraid of the lion, and she was afraid of the

lion, and she was afraid of the lion, and

she was afraid of the lion, and she was

afraid of the lion, and she was afraid

of the lion, and she was afraid of the

lion, and she was afraid of the lion, and

she was afraid of the lion, and she was

afraid of the lion, and she was afraid

Gov. BROWN has offered $125 reward for Madison Jessup, charged with murder in Davison county.

The post-office at Eminence, Ky., was entered by expert burglars last night and stamps and stamped envelopes to the value of $800 taken from the safe, which they blew open.

The National Democratic Convention to choose a candidate for President and to publish the platform upon which that candidate is to be elected, will meet in Chicago, June 21st.

AS the circulation of the HERALD increases, the jail gets empty. Read the HERALD and keep out of trouble. People engaged in the laudable occupation of reading the HERALD never get into jail, anyhow.

WHILE leaning forward during prayers at church in Owensboro Sunday night, George Brooks, colored, was shot in the back and fatally wounded by Lucy Wilkerson, a colored woman who had betrayed the woman in jail.

MAJOR HICKMAN, of Owensboro, says in reply to an inquiry from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, that he is unable to enforce the law against selling whisky on Sunday, because no law will appear against the saloonists.

THE Frankfort Capital, which knows a good thing when it sees it, refers to the HERALD's Frankfort correspondent as "a very grateful writer." To be sure he is, and nearly every good citizen of Ohio county reads his letters with interest.

For the first time in five years Jailer Thomson is without any boarders. The last prisoner he had in jail was a few years ago, and it is not thought any body else will need the upper rooms in that castle, as the folks of Ohio county are rapidly becoming entirely virtuous.

WE are strict constructionists and favor the most rigid enforcement of the Constitution of Kentucky as it is. Away with new technical extensions of its requirements, which destroy alike the purpose and meaning of its framers and the respect which is due to the instrument itself. Let its provisions be carried out.

MUCH agitation has been caused lately by the attitude of affairs between the Chilian Republic and the United States. Will rumors of war be true everywhere, but an apology and an offer of indemnity for the injuries heretofore perpetrated upon American citizens, have allayed somewhat the war feeling, and an early settlement of the affair is expected.

MISS ALICE MITCHELL, a prominent society lady of Memphis, sprang upon her former friend Mrs. Feda Ward, and cut her throat with a razor, causing instant death. The murder occurred on a principal street and has caused much excitement, owing to the prominence of the girls, neither of whom were 20 years old and both members of leading families.

No politics of public trust are more intimately concerned with the interests of every citizen than those of Circuit Clerk and Sheriff. These are places demanding not only unquestioned integrity, but thorough business qualifications. Let no man offer for those places for whom he has not the qualifications. Let no man habit and training a business man. He must be not only honest, but capable.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." The fruits of Republican rule in America have been the degradation of agriculture in all its branches; labor is reduced to desperation, and strikes and anarchy and poverty and wretchedness fill the homes of the richest land on earth. Why? And not another, are entitled to the fruit of my own toil. This simple, yet fundamental truth, the Republican party refuse to admit in theory or permit in practice.

The Legislature has now been in session a month and nothing has been done. This is due to the lack of leadership among the members, but not largely to the feeling of uncertainty engendered by the plunge into the unmarked wilderness of Constitutional limitations. Neither the men who made the constitution nor the men who voted for the present Constitution, know full the unexplored wilderness that lurks in its tangled meshes. Twenty thousand dollars have already been expended in the party which that paper was very briefly preliminary to its discussion, and—but we insist. It is the Constitution of Kentucky, and whether with our consent or not, the people want it and got it.

DAVISON county has $10,000 in this land, there is yet in its treasury that was collected from a specific purpose of paying off some railroad bonds which were subsequently declared by the courts to be illegal. What to do with this pile of money is the perplexing question over here now. Why not expend it in building a hall in which to give Tom Pettit a lifetime opportunity to see that fine voice of his?

Two or three weeks correspond in the country furnish wheat more the one from the State and the other from the National Capital, for day night and stamps and stamped envelopes to the value of $800 taken from the safe, which they blew open.

Let no man habit and training a business man. He must be not only honest, but capable.

DAVISON county has $10,000 in this land, there is yet in its treasury that was collected from a specific purpose of paying off some railroad bonds which were subsequently declared by the courts to be illegal. What to do with this pile of money is the perplexing question over here now. Why not expend it in building a hall in which to give Tom Pettit a lifetime opportunity to see that fine voice of his?

Two or three weeks correspond in the country furnish wheat more the one from the State and the other from the National Capital, for day night and stamps and stamped envelopes to the value of $800 taken from the safe, which they blew open.

THE National Democratic Convention to choose a candidate for President and to publish the platform upon which that candidate is to be elected, will meet in Chicago, June 21st.

AS the circulation of the HERALD increases, the jail gets empty. Read the HERALD and keep out of trouble. People engaged in the laudable occupation of reading the HERALD never get into jail, anyhow.

WHILE leaning forward during prayers at church in Owensboro Sunday night, George Brooks, colored, was shot in the back and fatally wounded by Lucy Wilkerson, a colored woman who had betrayed the woman in jail.

MAJOR HICKMAN, of Owensboro, says in reply to an inquiry from the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, that he is unable to enforce the law against selling whisky on Sunday, because no law will appear against the saloonists.

THE Frankfort Capital, which knows a good thing when it sees it, refers to the HERALD's Frankfort correspondent as "a very grateful writer." To be sure he is, and nearly every good citizen of Ohio county reads his letters with interest.

For the first time in five years Jailer Thomson is without any boarders. The last prisoner he had in jail was a few years ago, and it is not thought any body else will need the upper rooms in that castle, as the folks of Ohio county are rapidly becoming entirely virtuous.

WE are strict constructionists and favor the most rigid enforcement of the Constitution of Kentucky as it is. Away with new technical extensions of its requirements, which destroy alike the purpose and meaning of its framers and the respect which is due to the instrument itself. Let its provisions be carried out.

MUCH agitation has been caused lately by the attitude of affairs between the Chilian Republic and the United States. Will rumors of war be true everywhere, but an apology and an offer of indemnity for the injuries heretofore perpetrated upon American citizens, have allayed somewhat the war feeling, and an early settlement of the affair is expected.

MISS ALICE MITCHELL, a prominent society lady of Memphis, sprang upon her former friend Mrs. Feda Ward, and cut her throat with a razor, causing instant death. The murder occurred on a principal street and has caused much excitement, owing to the prominence of the girls, neither of whom were 20 years old and both members of leading families.

No politics of public trust are more intimately concerned with the interests of every citizen than those of Circuit Clerk and Sheriff. A Word About School Books—The New Commissioners of Agriculture.

A Good Word for the Legislature—About Our Senatorial and Judicial Districts.

A WORD FOR UNCLE WESLEY.

Special Correspondence of the HERALD.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 23, 1892. The Legislature is slow getting to work as a body. Not all the time is attached to the business side of the new Constitution requires that the Legislature change the necessary in present laws, to fit things to the new Constitution. The Commission has made reports on three important subjects and these reports are now in the hands of different committees. These committees must pass on those bills before they can come before the General Assembly. Another reason for delay is the tortuous route a bill has to take under the new Constitution.

The bill book question is being agitated all having been introduced to adopt a uniform series of text-books. The bill book is a very important factor in the educational work of the State. It is a bill book that has been used for many years. It is a bill book that has been used for many years. It is a bill book that has been used for many years.

John W. C. Brown, the new Commissioner of Agriculture, is ready to enter upon his duties. He is a man of high standing in the community. He is a man of high standing in the community. He is a man of high standing in the community.

FAIR BROS. & CO'S Big Mistake!

"Two weeks ago, when the weather was as mild as a May day, we advertised our line of HEAVY WINTER GOODS at COST, presuming that the predictions of weather prophets were going to prove false. But to-day, when we see mother earth draped in white, we find that we have

MADE THE MISTAKE

In placing our Goods at such figures. As the past cannot be repaired, we must abide the consequence, so we still say to our patrons to come along and take our Boots, Shoes, Overcoats, Flannels, Yarns, Linseys, Bed Comforts, Blankets, in fact all strictly winter wear, at exactly what they are billed to us.

BOOTS AND SHOES

Out of forty cases of Boots we have four left, sizes running from 6 to 11, in plain and boxtoe, that cost us from $1.75 to $2. They are all bargains at 50c more on the pair. Our $3.25 Heavy Oil Grain Boots for water, go now at $2.50 and $2.75. Log men should avail themselves of this opportunity. Our stock of

OVERCOATS

Is very low, but we somehow manage to fit every man or boy that calls on us. We will continue to dispose of them at July prices. No one should come to town and go away without seeing our line of

CLOTHING

They are beauties. We claim to be men of reputation. No jehing or dickering, but everything placed on business principles. We are leaders in every line, so for bargains and the latest novelties, you should visit

At the United States Court in Owensboro, Alfred Beasley was found guilty of retaining liquor without license. He was given $100 and 30 days in jail for the same offense. Jack Hall was also found guilty of the same offense. Stevens was continued.

L. H. Herring, and family, of White Plains, Hopkins county, Ky., moved to town yesterday. He comes here for the same reason as the thousands of others offered in Hartford College. Herring formerly lived at Buford, in this county. We gladly welcome him back into our midst again.

The Beaver Dam High School, which has been so successfully taught the past few months by Mr. S. C. Stetson and Miss Elsie Chapman, will close to-night. So much interest has been taken in the school that a fine spring term is promised. It will begin Monday next, and some interesting exercises will be given at the schoolhouse Monday evening. Superintendent Rogers and others interested in educational matters, will be present, and all who feel the school is invited. A pleasant evening is promised.

Mr. Estin Taylor, of Beaver Dam, has recently purchased the elegantly light touring station, Buick No. 1927, and will stand him for many a winter. Mr. Taylor is a resident of Beaver Dam, Ky., the present season. See advertisement in another column. Mr. Taylor has shown nerves and courage in bringing into our section so valuable a traction, and the result cannot fail to prove of great benefit to the stock interests in this and surrounding counties. Those who wish to improve their stock would do well to confer with Mr. Taylor before getting elsewhere.

Timothy O'Connell a Victim
A very sad accident occurred near Row's bridge on Branch river about 8 miles below Hartford, last Thursday night. Timothy O'Connell, Jr., a well known man, was driving a team of horses, loaded with a load of hay. The snow had made the ground very slick and after the team had been driven to the bridge, the horses slipped and fell over the side of the bridge. The driver was killed and the horses were also killed.
